

Ming K. Jeang Award for Excellence in Cell & Bioscience

Cell & Bioscience announces the establishment of the Ming K. Jeang Award for Excellence in Cell & Bioscience. The Award, consisting of $500 cash and a certificate, is funded by a generous donation from the Ming K. Jeang Foundation and intends to honor outstanding research papers published in Cell & Bioscience. All research articles published in Cell & Bioscience are qualified for consideration and a committee made of editors and board members will select two research articles published in the preceding year in Cell & Bioscience to receive the award.
