Ming K. Jeang scholarship Award for students and postdocs at the 13th SCBA Biennial Meeting

SCBA announces student and postdoc scholarship awards for participants at the 13th SCBA Biennial Meeting. The Ming K. Jeang scholarship Awards are funded by a generous donation from the Ming K. Jeang Foundation and are open to selected students and postdoctoral fellows presenting at the meeting. To qualify, the applicants should have registered for the meeting and submitted an abstract online, and should then email a brief note expressing interest to apply, together with the submitted abstract to by APRIL 15, 2011. The abstracts will be reviewed by a committee and awardees will be announced at the meeting. Each awardee will receive an award certificate and a cash award of 800 Yuan. Up to 80 awards will be made to selected candidates. The scholarship award is open for competition by any students or postdocs, regardless of geographic origin, who has registered for and submitted an abstract for presentation at the meeting.
